

Try one of our FREE COURSES

ARMED FORCES PATHWAYS

WHERE WILL IT TAKE YOU?

Frequently Asked Questions

160th Infantry Brigade and Headquarters Wales

For further information contact:

WO1 Neil Martin

Army Youth Engagement Officer,
160th Infantry Brigade and Headquarters Wales

T: 07970 879621

E: 160X-AFEP@mod.gov.uk

Q1. Am I joining the Armed Forces

A. No, this is a Look at Life which will hopefully give you a greater insight into the Armed Forces and help with subsequent career / employment choices. However, if you do elect to join, this will provide you with an opportunity to train, learn new skills and enhance your chances of employment elsewhere.

questions in relation to this matter should be directed to your Job Centre Plus Advisor.

Q3. Will this course have any financial impact on myself?

A. No, this course is provided free of charge.

Q2. Will this affect any financial benefits that I am in receipt of?

A. No, attending this course will not affect your benefits. All further

CAREER
UPSKILLING
EMPLOYMENT

The Armed Forces Pathway Scheme

What's it about?

The aim of the Armed Forces Pathways Scheme is to reinforce the following key messages:

- Informative learning experiences - Life Skills
- Outward-bound personal development activities
- Armed Forces career advice session
- Make new friends
- Adventure
- Learn new skills
- Gain recognised qualifications
- Build a great CV and much more...

Look at Life

Be The Best Course

Our outward bound Be The Best is a great provider of experience-based team-building, leadership, problem solving and personal development activity programmes, setting participants on the right path.

Be The Best experience seeks to empower people through hands-on experiences, combining learning-by-doing, adventure, challenge and fun.

Be The Best sets the stage for people to explore their possibilities as team players, leaders, problem solvers and responsible citizens within our community.

Be The Best is an outward-bound Look at Life course providing work experience for individuals. This will leave a long and lasting impression on their lives. It will drive a marked improvement in trust, attitude and maturity through unforgettable experiences.

Providing people with an opportunity to gain skills for life and discover more about the Armed Forces and themselves

Programme summary

The theme of the week will be an Army Look at Life Course giving students an insight for a career in the Regular or Reserve Armed Forces.

Monday - Initial briefings with an adventurous afternoon and fitness.

Tuesday and Wednesday - Leadership Personal Development Activities and Outward Bound Exercises.

Thursday - Emergency First Aid and further industry accredited training.

Friday - Final Preparation, Interviews, CV Builder and next step.

